NEARLY 300 BURNED IN MEXICAN THEATRE

Tragic Ending of Gala Performance---Americans Are Among Those Who Lost Lives.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 16.—Between 250 and 300 people were burned to death and many were injured in a fire which destroyed the Flores Theatre in the city of Acapulco Sunday night. The news of the disaster reached this capital this afternoon, telegraphic communication with Acapulco having been destroyed owing to the fact that the telegraph office adjoining the theatre was burned and all wires put out of commission.

The floor of the theatre was a wooden affair and Sunday night over 1,000 people crowded into it to witness a special performance, given in honor of Gov. Damian Flores of the State of Guerrero, who was visiting the port at that time.

Many Are Roasted Alive.

One of the numbers of the program consisted of a series of moving pictures. While the operator was exhibiting these a film caught fire and a blaze was quickly communicated to some bunting, which had been used for decorative purposes. In an incredible short time the flames spread to all parts of the structure. There were but three narrow exits and the panic stricken audience rushed to these, many falling and being crushed to death, their bodies choking the way of escape to the others.

The screams of those imprisoned were terrifying and heart-rending. Owing to the rapidity with which the fire spread and to its intense heat it was impossible to attempt rescue work and those imprisoned were literally roasted alive, as the fire burned with little smoke, and few were suffocated.

Bodies Beyond Identification.

The efforts of the fire department were confined to the attempt to save adjoining buildings and they succeeded so that the property loss was small.

The telegraph office, postoffice and customs house were damaged, but all of the government records and registered mail was saved.

Yesterday pitiful scenes of grief were being enacted in the streets of the little West Coast port. Men, women and children are wandering from place to place, hunting for relatives and friends. Many of the dead are from the first families of the State, the affair at the theatre being a social event of considerable importance, and calling out the wealthiest and oldest families for miles around. In some instances entire families were wiped out of existence.

The municipal authorities caused large trenches to be dug, and into these the remains of the dead were laid. According to the telegrams received from there recognition of any of the dead has been an impossibility owing to the fact that the bodies were burned in most cases to a crisp.

Americans Are Victims.

Telegrams to the American consul at Acapulco by the Associated Press asking for the names of the American dead, have as yet not been replied to.

Acapulco, on the West Coast of the State of Guerrero, is one of three important ports of the Pacific Coast of Mexico. Nearly all of the steamship lines make it a port of call, and the harbor is said to be the best in Mexico.

Waters-Pierce Oil Co. May Be Ousted From State

JEFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 16.—On the ground that the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of Missouri has not complied with the ouster decree of the supreme court of the State in an answer filed this morning, Attorney-General Major this afternoon filed with the court a suggestion that the ouster be made effective against the concern. The action of the attorney-general is based upon the fact that the company has not furnished satisfactory evidence that it has severed relations with the Standard Oil Company.

Henry S. Priest of St. Louis and H. Clay Pierce, chairman of the board of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, yesterday filed in the supreme court of Missouri an acceptance of the terms imposed upon the company by the recent ouster order of the court. The fine of $50,000 was paid.

The ouster decree provided that the company must show to the court that it had severed all connection with the Standard Oil Company. A statement to this effect may yet be required by the court.

Judge Priest, however, said that he believed yesterday's action covered the case so far as the Missouri corporation is concerned.

Gen. Weaver of Iowa Hears Col. Bryan Eulogize Him

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 16.—With William Jennings Bryan as the principal orator an unique event took place yesterday in the unveiling of a life-sized portrait of Gen. James B. Weaver, the gift to the State of admiring friends. The occasion also marked the anniversary of the attack of the Second Iowa Regiment, of which Gen. Weaver was a member, upon Fort Donelson.

The unveiling took place in the House chamber in the presence of both houses of the Legislature, with Gov. Carroll presiding. Mr. Bryan spoke for an hour in eulogy of Gen. Weaver, with whom he had been associated for twenty years. Gen. Weaver was present as the guest of honor of the occasion.

THE HOUSE REMOVES BARRIER TO KNOX

REDUCES SALARY OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

To Old Figures So That Pennsylvania Senator May Serve as a Member of Taft's Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—By a vote of 173 to 117 the House yesterday passed the bill removing the bar to Senator Knox's eligibility for the office of Secretary of State. This was the second vote of the day on this measure, and the two were separated only about two hours' time. The first vote was taken on the bill under general order for the suspension of the rules, and under that order, according to the standing rules of the house a bill must receive a two-thirds majority to insure its passage. The first vote stood 179 to 123, the majority thus falling considerably below the two-thirds requirement.

Immediately after this result was announced the House Committee on Rules held a meeting, which resulted in Mr. Dalzell's bringing in a rule making it in order for the House to again take up the bill and act upon it under conditions which should require only a majority vote to pass it.

The opponents of the measure did not cease their antagonism, which on the previous consideration had brought out a number of sharp criticisms, but immediately demanded a roll call on the previous question on the adoption of the rule. This call consumed twenty-five minutes, and after the rule had been adopted the debate was resumed.

Mr. Olmstead (Pennsylvania) contended that the bill does not accomplish an evasion of the constitution. Among several other precedents Mr. Olmstead cited the case of Senator Morrill of Vermont, who was appointed Secretary of the Treasury.

Strongly Opposed.

In the opinion of Mr. Williams (Mississippi), who opposed the bill, that was the only reputable authority alluded to. Senator Morrill, he said, had been confirmed through Senatorial courtesy which, he said, "overrides all bars, constitutional and otherwise." The bill, he declared, was "a clear, plain, palpable, obvious and manifest case of a direct and expressed constitutional inhibition."

Mr. Clark (Missouri) for the second time during the day, took the floor in opposition to the bill and said that Congress was making itself "the laughing stock of every intelligent man on the face of God's green earth." He referred to a famous expression by the late Tim Campbell of New York, who had asked "what's the constitution between friends?" and said that if the bill under discussion should pass Mr. Campbell would stand justified as a constitutional lawyer.

In adding his voice against the bill, Mr. Caulfield (Missouri) declared that it was a case of constitutional jugglery or legislative favortism.

The debate was brought to a close by DeArmond (Missouri), who argued for the passage of the bill.

On a yea and nay vote the bill was passed, 173 to 117.

The bill passed by the House is the one which had been previously passed by the Senate. It was not amended and it will not therefore be necessary for it to go to conference. The measure requires only the signature of the President to make it a law.

COLORED VOTERS, ATTENTION!

Will Have Rousing Meeting at Johnson's Hall Tonight.

The negroes will have a rousing political meeting at Johnson's hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of forming an organization among the colored people for the coming municipal election.

S. B. Willis, one of the leaders along this line, desires that as many of the colored voters as possible make it their business to be present and participate in the selection of a ticket which they propose to support throughout the campaign.

Formerly the colored vote was much sought after, but in recent years they have not been as strong as in ye olden times, and this matter is proposed to be remedied at the meeting and place them in demand in the election.

SHADOW STRANGERS IN THE COOPER CASE

Secret Service Established by Both Sides in the Trial of Carmack's Slayers.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 16.—On the eve of the trial of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, Robin J. Cooper and John D. Sharp for the slaying of former Senator E. W. Carmack, the factions are figuratively resting on their arms. Most of the witnesses for the State, who are from a distance, are in the city. The others are on the way. Mrs. E. W. Carmack, wife of the slain editor, arrived last night and will sit benind the attorneys for the State. Sam C. Carmack, the dead man's brother, and S. S. Carmack, a cousin, are now here.

The State proposes to establish first the death of Senator Carmack by the eye witnesses. Then it will begin to lay the foundation for its theory that the killing was the result of a conspiracy. Just at this point will come the big legal battle of the trial. The defense proposes to fight this contention from the start. The laws of Tennessee upon conspiracy are said to be very liberal once the ground work is laid, but this foundation must be very strong.

Defense Conceals Its Hand.

The State's early witnesses will be Mrs. Eastman, with whom the Senator was talking when shot; former State Treasurer Ed Craig, who carried Col. Cooper's threat to Senator Carmack; Carey Folk, brother of the State treasurer, who saw the defendants standing near the scene of the tragedy a few moments before it happened.

Just what line the defense will follow, except the broad one of self-defense, has not been announced nor, will it be until the State's case in chief is made. Attorneys for both sides were in conference until late last night. Both sides also have in their employ secret agents in numbers, and every stranger in the city is subjected to close scrutiny and espionage. There is little or no display of feeling in public, however.

The court officials have prepared to take care of large crowds. Judge Hart has ordered that only as many as can be accommodated with seats will be admitted to the court room. No tickets will be issued, and those who arrive first will get the prizes.

Arizona and New Mexico En Route to Statehood

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16.—The long struggle of Arizona and New Mexico for separate Statehood was rewarded Monday in so far as the House of Representatives is concerned when that body, under the suspension of the rules, unanimously passed the bll granting Statehood to the two territories.

Mr. Hamilton, Michigan, having the measure in charge, spoke briefly in support of it. He said it was not a party question. Both sides, he declared, "were now rallying to fulfill party pledges."

Mr. Smith, Arizona's delegate, made a plea for the passage of the bill. That such a bill had not been passed before, said he, was a matter which stood as a shame against the record of Congress.

There were cries of "Vote!" "Vote!" but the ballot was not taken until Representatives Stanley, Kentucky; Caulder, Mississippi; Cole, Ohio, and Sulzer, New York, had eulogized Delegates Smith and Andrews and predicted their early return to Congress.

What Was Transpiring in Gainesville in 1876

(Gainesville Times, Aug. 10, 1876—E. M. Hampton, Editor.)

Peaches on the streets in abundance on Saturday at thirty cents a peck.

T. Benton Ellis of this place has gone to Cedar Keys on a visit. (Benton was then no doubt paying court to the lady who has for many years been his good helpmete.

On last Saturday afternoon Simon Barnes, colored policeman, was severely cut by Dr. Whaley, and the latter also seriously injured by the policeman with his club. (How would a colored policeman look on the streets of Gainesville now?)

Col. E. W. Perry, senior editor of The State Journal, and one of the delegates from Levy, was in our sanctum during his stay in the city. The Colonel is enthusiastic in his support of Judge King for the Senate, and pledged him a majority of 400 from old Levy. (Alachua and Levy counties then comprised a Senatorial district. The present editor of The Sun was in those days the "Head Devil" in The State Journal office.)

Building Large Home.

A. L. Craig, who has been visiting Gainesville for the past several winters and who has become very favorably impressed with the city, is now building a large two-story 9-room house on his lot in East Gainesville. The building when completed will be a handsome structure and will add to the looks of a fast growing section.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACT AWARDED THIS WEEK

COMPLICATIONS SURROUNDING DELAY HAVE BEEN ADJUSTED.

Reliable Information Received That Work Will Be Commenced Within the Next Fifteen Days.

The most gratifying news to be received in Gainesville for some time is the fact that without further delay work is shortly to commence on the Government building, which will mean that $150,000 will be spent in this city during the coming summer months, or a large part of that amount.

From reliable information The Sun reporter was informed that the complications which have held up the signing of the contract have all been satisfactorily adjusted, and that this little routine of business will be transacted the present week. The successful bidders will put men and material on the ground within fifteen days to commence this large undertaking.

The matter that has held them off was in the trimmings of the building, but the material has been substituted around to enable the contractor to come within the required appropriation, and sufficient money will be left over to fix up the outside grounds according to the specifications.

Congressman Frank Clark has been untiring in his efforts and has been working hard for the successful ending of these plans. Through him it was learned that there would be only a short delay of a few days in completing the final arrangements, and the people of Gainesville feel assured that he has done everything in his power to push the work along as fast as possible.

BURNING ECZEMA QUICKLY SPREAD

Started Like Ringworm on Hand—Hand Swelled and Then Humor Spread to Arms, Legs and Face—It was Something Terrible.

PRESCRIPTIONS FAILED: CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I have used the Cuticura Remedies for a very bad case of eczema with complete success. About fifteen or eighteen years ago the disease developed in the shape of a large pinhead on top of my hand. It burned and itched so much that I was compelled to show it to a doctor. He pronounced it ringworm, and made very light of it. He gave me a wash and told me to apply it before going to bed and all would be over in the morning. But the next morning my hand was all swollen up and I poulticed it. When the doctor came to his office I showed him the hand and to my surprise he told me that he had never experienced such a case in his practice and said it was well I poulticed it. After trying his different remedies the disease increased and went up my arms and finally to my thighs and legs generally and finally on my face. The burning was something terrible. After I had tried this doctor, as I thought, long enough, I went to another doctor who had the reputation of being the best in town. He told me it was a bad case of eczema and that it would take quite a while to cure it. His medicine checked the advance of the disease but no further.

"I finally concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and found relief in the first trial. I continued until I was completely free from the disease and I have not been troubled with another attack since. I still use the Cuticura Ointment in my family as it is one of the best remedies to heal a sore or other injury rapidly. I can freely and truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are the best so far as my experience went with them and I am still recommending them, feeling sure I am not making a mistake. C. Burkhart, 236 W. Market St., Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 19, 1908."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood. Electric Theatre.

Rain or shine, you will always find the pictures shown at the Electric Theatre just as good.

There are hundreds of moving picture shows scattered over the country at the present time, the large majority exhibiting one or two pictures in thirty minutes and then beginning another show with the same pictures. In other words, they charge from ten cents to twenty-five cents, according to lacality, to witness a picture, and have several exhibitions of this during the evening.

At the Electric Theatre in Gainesville the doors are opened at 7 o'clock and between that and 9:30 o'clock five or six reels of pictures are shown in one continuous show and only ten cents charged for the whole show. This makes the Gainesville Electric Theatre the best in the country, and one in which a person gets more for their money.

HIGH-O-ME

That's the Way to Pronounce Hyomei, the Money-Back Catarrh Cure.

As doubt exists in the minds of many readers of The Sun let us say that the above is the proper pronunciation of America's most wonderful catarrh cure.

J. W. McCollum & Co. are the agents for Hyomei in Gainesville and they will sell you an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and full instructions for use, for only $1.00.

And if it fails to cure acute or chronic catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, croup, hay fever or coughs and colds, they will give you your money back. The person who suffers from catarrh after such an offer as that, must like to snuffle, spit and wheeze, and be generally disgusting.

Read what Mr. Lowe, a respected citizen of Allegan, Mich., says of Hyomei:

"I have used Hyomei for a case of nasal catarrh which had bothered me for a long time. I can say that Hyomei killed the germs of the disease and gave me the much sought and needed relief. From this experience I know Hyomei to be a reliable remedy, and I give it the praise and recommendation that it deserves."—G. F. Lowe, R. F. D. No. 7, Allegan, Mich., September 19, 1908.

SCHEMERS BILLED HERE.

Have Worked the Fakes All Over the State.

A novel and new scheme of faking the merchants was unearthed by The Times-Union in its issue of last Tuesday, which will probably put them to flight from the State if the newspapers will give the scheme publicity.

Two well-dressed men come into town and inform merchants that they are going to enlarge pictures free for people, the only requirement being that the party buy a frame for same. The men then make a contract with merchants to give a frame free upon the trading of so much, say $25. Then they canvass the town for enlarging pictures, stating that when they receive same such and such merchant will give them a frame free of charge, never mentioning the trading proposition. The fakirs then take the orders for the pictures, say 100, to the merchant and get his order for an equal number of frames. These are shipped C. O. D. and the merchant pays for same. Result: The fakirs get paid for the frames, but never enlarge the pictures, and the merchant is out so much money.

SWELL LOCAL EVENT.

Gainesville Guards' Minstrels at the Opera House Next Tuesday.

What promises to be one of the swellest society events of the season is the old-time original minstrels that is to be staged under the direction of Chas. T. Fales for the benefit of the Gainesville Guards, which is to take place at The New Baird on February 23.

The names of the gentlemen who will take part in the caste, which will be published later, will prove quite a surprise to the citizens, and some of the best local talent of the city has been secured.

Under the direction of Mr. Fales it will prove a pleasing attraction, as he is well remembered by the citizens as having put on several good plays while here about six years since.

Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough—Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of The Burley (Col.) Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was, indeed, marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Rapidly Building Up.

Dr. J. L. Kelley is having a new and modern house built near his old residence, which will be a credit to that portion of the city. This section has built up considerably within a short while and many new improvements are now in contemplation.

CHUBB ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THE INAUGURAL

SAYS GREAT PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR EVENT.

Washington City Will Witness the Greatest Inaugural Ceremonies in History of the City.

Col. Henry S. Chubb, receiver of the U. S. land office, has returned from a pleasant visit of ten days at the National Capital, where he went concerning important political matters.

He mingled freely with the Florida delegation and says that each and everyone are to be found on the alert and working for the interest of the State and the sections they represent in particular. He found Congressman Clark busy with the public building proposition, while Senator Taliaferro was especially active in regard to his turpentine bill.

Speaking of the inaugural ceremonies which occur on March 4, Col. Chubb said: "It will be the grandest, greatest and biggest ever in the City of Washington, and much preparation is now being made for it.

"Advices have been received from nearly all the States that the Governor, with his staff, will be present to witness the ceremonies, and besides numerous civic organizations throughout the country will be in line of this grand occasion.

"Grand stands are being built in every park and plot of ground along the line of march, besides windows in every building along the route have been rented at fabulous prices, which shows that the people of the Capital are expecting immense crowds.

"More Southern people are expected to attend this inaugural than ever before, owing to the recent visit of President Taft into Southern territory.

"The people generally expect much of President Taft's administration, and I confidently predict and expect that he will meet the expectations of all, judging solely by my acquaintance with him."

ATTEND THIS BIG SALE.

Very Desirable Building Lots to Be Offered to Public.

One of the prettiest locations in the city is the one in which lots will be auctioned off this afternoon by the Southern Realty and Auction Company, comprising thirty choice building lots on East Alachua avenue, conveniently located.

The tract of land is just this side of the Seaboard railway, within ten minutes' walk from the heart of the city, which makes them especially desirable.

Besides the choice lots that will be offered at auction, the company have a novelty to spring on the people in the way of selling lots by the Hopper Twins, who will sell them this afternoon. They have created a great deal of interest wherever they have appeared, and it will be well worth your while to go out and attend the sale, and at the same time participate in the grand free drawing which will occur at the grounds.

AT THE TABERNACLE.

Large Audience Greets the Opening Performance Last Night.

A fair crowd greeted the opening performance of the Winter Chautauqua last night at the Tabernacle. The performance put on last night consisted of a lecture illustrated with moving pictures, and proved pleasing to those present.

Addresses which were made concerning the good work done by the Chautauqua in years past and what would result from the present effort were well received. The men who have gotten up this great undertaking are to be commended upon securing good attractions for the citizens, as well as the large number of winter visitors here.

Today will open with the Biblical hour at 9:30, School of Health 10:30, and lectures at 3:30 and 8 p. m. Illustrated songs by Miss Bartell will also be another feature for the evening performance.

MORE GRANOLITHIC SIDEWALK BUILDING

SOUTHERMOST SECTION ALIVE TO NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.

Dr. Kelley, J. F. Bunch and Many Others to Have Walks Built of This New Material.

Southwest Gainesville is among the sections of the city that is fast coming to the front in improvements, and the citizens in that section are alive to the fact that to make it attractive they must get busy.

The granolithic sidewalk fever has struck that section, and J. F. Bunch, Dr. J. L. Kelley and others will soon have this class of walk placed around their premises. O. C. Tousey and many others are also contemplating having this work done within a short while.

Mrs. Witherspoon has just had granolithic walks placed around her property, and with what is now anticipated it will give all of that section fine walks, something they have never enjoyed heretofore, and make property more valuable in those quarters.

HENEY THREATENS INSULTING WITNESS

STOPS HIM ABRUPTLY FROM REFERRING TO HIS RECORD.

Says He Draws the Line Beyond Which No Living Man Can Step. Sensation in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—At the trial of Patrick Calhoun, on an indictment charging bribery, Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney yesterday resented the demeanor of a witness on the stand and declares that he had "drawn a line over which no living man may step" in villifying him.

Samuel Leake, who was summoned to the stand during the examination of veniremen because of an allegation that he had endeavored to purchase an interest in the haberdashery business conducted by a brother of one of the jurors, warned Mr. Heney that he could make certain revelations concerning the prosecutor's past. Mr. Leake, who had been questioned as to his visit to a saloon said: "I think it very improper to refer to these things, Mr. Heney. I could tell of places I saw you—."

"I want you to stop that right now," interrupted Mr. Heney. "I don't propose that you shall make any more threats. You are here to answer questions."

"There is one conversation you don't dare to refer to," retorted the witness. "There was one when you went up the back way into the Call office and tried to go back on Phelan and Sprackels—."

"That's all there will be of that," said Mr. Henry. "I took this sort of thing from Henry Arch (attorney for Abraham Ruef) for months, until it led to an attempt at assassination, and after this I want it understood that I won't take it from any man living. If I am going to be shot again, I'll be shot in front, not from behind, nor from the side."

Lewis F. Byington, of the defense, here took exception, saying, "We believe that the district attorney should recognize the limits of his duty in examining a witness."

Mr. Heney, rising, pitched his voice so that it penetrated beyond the room and said:

"This district attorney is doing his duty as such, but before I am a district attorney I am an American citizen, and in that capacity I want to say right here and now that I draw the line over which no living man may step. For months I took all the villification that could be heaped on me, merely because I dared to do my duty, which someone had to do, but I am through with it now, and I want this thoroughly understood."

The panel of twelve tentative jurors was broken by the discharge of one peremptory challenge; and two alleged cases of jury tampering were made public.

Answer This Question

When thousands of women say that they have been cured of their ailments by a certain remedy, does this not prove the merit of that remedy?

Thousands of women have written the story of their suffering, and have told how they were freed from it by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—for thirty years these reports have been published all over America.

Without great merit this medicine could never have gained the largest sale of any remedy for woman's ills—never could have become known and prized in nearly every country in the world.

Can any woman let prejudice stand between her and that which will restore her health? If you believe those who have tried it you know this medicine does cure.

Read this letter from a grateful woman, then make up your mind to give Mrs. Pinkham's medicine a chance to cure you.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I am a firm believer in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was a great sufferer from organic female troubles for years, and almost despaired of ever being well again. I had bearing-down pains, backache, headache and pains in my abdomen, and tried Mrs. Pinkham's Compound as a last resort. The result was astonishing, and I have used it and advocated it ever since. It is a great boon to expectant mothers. I have often said that I should like to have its merits thrown on the sky with a search-light so that women would read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their sufferings.

"My husband joins me in its praise. He has used it for kidney trouble and been entirely cured."—Mrs. E. A. Bishop, 1915 Atlantic Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Historian Ferrero says Marc Anthony's alleged impassioned oration over the dead body of Caesar was the rankest sort of "fake." This will in no wise dampen sophomoric endeavor during the forthcoming commencement season, however.

That class of people who strain at a gnat and swallow a camel raised objection to the risqueness of the bill board lithographs which were used to advertise the Mardi Gras to be held in Pensacola. The fact that the chairman of the committee having the advertising in charge is a local newspaper man, is sufficient guarantee that there was nothing immoral in the pictures.

When a man performs his duty under somewhat trying circumstances some hysterical papers are sure to flop over and loudly assert that the man is a hero of priceless worth and a sort of demigod. This was particularly seen in the hero worship of one or two men on the occasion of the collision between the Republic and the Florida. While their official positions made their fidelity to duty somewhat conspicuous, yet the same quality distinguished all the officers and crews in equal measure. Why should anyone be exalted and half worshiped for doing his duty? That is what he is expected and engaged to do. And every day in every community people are performing their duties faithfully without public recognition; neither do they expect any.

HE OBJECTS.

The Sun is in receipt of the following from an esteemed patron of The Sun whose opinion the editor has great respect for:

"I don't think special legislation should be made on the sale of seed cotton, for there are many of our farmers who make less than a bale and have to use it for home protection as soon as gathered. It will be throwing all favors in the hands of the big planters, who can get help without selling their cotton, and the poor child can go naked and cry for bread, etc. Our poor are to be protected, or we are going to have serious trouble this side of Japan."

As we understand the matter, it is the desire of the Farmers' Union, which organization is asking for legislation prohibiting the sale of Sea Island cotton in the seed during certain months, to endeavor to get a general law of this kind enacted. Failing in this, the Farmers' Union of Alachua county will ask for a special law for Alachua county.

The fact that the farmers who produce less than a bale of cotton throw the same upon the market at whatever price they can get for it, is what prevents those who make a business of growing cotton from obtaining a remunerative price for their product. If the proposed legislation will enable the large cotton grower to obtain a better price for his crop, will it not also benefit the small grower in proportion to the amount he produces?

One of two things is certain, either the cotton growers must receive a better price for their crop than has prevailed during the past, or they will be compelled to abandon the crop.

If the farmer now engaged in growing less than a bale of cotton would devote the same time to the production of potatoes, vegetables for the home market, poultry, eggs, hogs, cattle, etc., he would soon discover that he profited thereby.

This is the way The Sun views the matter from the unprejudiced standpoint of one who desires to see the greatest good done for the greatest number. We do not claim to know it all, however, and invite discussion of the proposed legislation.

The relations between the Liberal government and the House of Lords are growing more acute if possible. As all know the Lords deliberately turn down every great measure introduced and passed through the Commons by the government, thus rendering each session of Parliament somewhat barren of legislation. How to deal with a situation that has become well nigh intolerable is a puzzling problem. But Winton Churchill, one of the government, says that if at the next general election the Liberals again receive a majority they will refuse to take office until they receive adequate guarantees that their measures will not be blocked. That would mean that England practically would have no government, and it would necessarily result in the Lords giving way and the end of that anomalous feature of England politics—an irresponsible legislative body.

"Consistent and persistent golfers certainly lengthen their lives," writes Mr. Taft. There is mention in "The Expedition of Humphrey Clinker" of a brand of Scotch golfers in Edinburg, if we remember right, not a man of whom was under four score. They had been playing for generations, and not one of them even went to bed without "the better part of a gallon of claret" inside him. If the claret had been shut off, as it would be in these sober times, they might have lived to be 150.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Indianapolis News says: "To be sure it cost Senator Stephenson of Wisconsin $107,793.05 to make his campaign in the primary election, but what's a mere bagatelle like $107,793.05 to as prominent a Senator as Mr. Stephenson?"

The Louisville Courier-Journal says: "Kentucky's highest court having decided that insurance cannot be collected on property burned by night riders, the losers by those fires, not being allowed to sue the county, or State, which fails to give the protection that every citizen is entitled to, would seem to be helpless unless they should move out of the State and sue the night riders. If this is not a condition of anarchy, what is it?"

The Birmingham News says: "A call has been issued in New York for a conference for the purpose of discussing the negro question. Aside from the amount of ignorance that will be manifested at this meeting, it will, as most of the meetings of this kind, do more harm than good. The less said and done in the North in this direction the better for the negro as well as the white man. The best way to solve the so-called negro question is to let it alone. That has been demonstrated time and again in the South as well as in the North, and more especially in the North."

The Montgomery Advertiser says: "Lee's greatness does not need a statue at Washington or anywhere else to commemorate it or to render it enduring, but there can be no good reason why it should not be placed there. The causes, the events and the results of the bloody conflict are history; the country is again one united republic, the city of Washington is as much the South's as it is the North's and spite and prejudice should no longer be suffered to draw sectional lines between North and South. If George Washington could speak he would not object to association with Robert E. Lee in marble or bronze."

and you will save yourself a lot of suffering and trouble. If you have a sudden chill—or take cold—if you have colic, cramp or diarrhoea, don't wait a minute. How It Struck Him.

It was 5 o'clock in the afternoon, in a crowded Brooklyn trolley car, and above the noise arose the wails of a leather lunged baby protesting against everything. After two miles of this din the mother left with her child, when a young man in the front end of the car thus expressed his sentiments:

Gee whiz! I'm glad I'm free!
No wedding bells for me.

The result can be more easily imagined than described.—New York Post.

E POISON CUP USED IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

e Collinwood fire horror pales ignificance compared with the ace of the common school drink- cup, as portrayed in the Febru- number of "Good Housekeeping." proves truly to be a veritable poison , and it is not pleasant to read ut it. The human mouth, with its rmth and moisture, is a favorite ding place for bacteria, and it ap- rs to be impossible for human lips touch anything without contami- ting it.

. Alvin Davison, of Lafayette ege, requested ten boys, says the le, in "Good Housekeeping," to e the upper lip to pieces of flat, ss them in the same way as they ld such a cup in drinking. Under a microscope these slips showed an ber of about one hundred human ls to a minute bits of skin and 75,000 teria to each slip—this from one rface to the lip.

ofessor Davison also examined drinking glass which for nine days had been in common use in a school. Counting the cells present on fifty different areas on the glass he esti- ted that the cup contained over ty cells or bits of dead skin. Few ections showed less than ten germs belonging to them, and many as high as one hundred and fifty, while be- ween the cells were thousands of cteria left by the smears of saliva de- osited by the drinkers.

e cup which had been used in a school for several months with- being washed was lined inside with a thin, brownish deposit. Under the microscope this proved to be composed of particles of mud, thous- nds of bits of dead skin and millions f bacteria, among which were scores of germs corresponding in all details those of tuberculosis. Some of this sediment was injected under the skin of a healthy guinea pig, and in forty days the animal died. A post-mor- tem examination revealed that death was due to the presence of a sufficient number of pneumonia germs to cause fatal poisoning.

The second guinea pig inoculated with the cup sediment developed tuberculosis.

And these are only a few of the dangers to which the State exposes children in its efforts to give them an education which Harold Gorst considers such a curse. There are many owels as well as dirty drinking cups. One school was found where seventy-five children used only a sin- gle towel daily. There is the com- mon cake of soap, also. There are dirty books and germ-laden dust, kept ever in motion by the restless shuf- fling of little feet. How much of the ills of childhood may be traced to these sources?—New York Tribune.

Pneumonia Follows Lagrippe.

Pneumonia often follows lagrippe but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, for lagrippe coughs and deep-seated colds. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Short Verse.

An Englishman named Thomas Thorp died, leaving his fortune to a poor relative on condition that a head- stone, with the name of the said Thomas Thorp and a verse of poetry, be erected over the grave. Costing so much a word to chisel letters on stone, the poor relative ordered that poetry should be brief. Upon its refusal to approve, on account of its length, the lines

Here lies the corp
Of Thomas Thorp

The following was finally ordered and accepted:

Thorp's Corpse.

The Gingerbread Tree.

There is a species of palm, growing to a height of from twenty-five to thir- ty feet, in Egypt, Arabia, Abyssinia and Nubia which produces its fruit in long clusters, each containing from 100 to 200. These fruits are of an irregular form, of a rich yellowish brown color and are beautifully pol- ished. In upper Egypt they form part of the food of the poorer classes of in- habitants, the part eaten being the brown, mealy husk, which tastes al- most exactly like gingerbread, whence the popular name of gingerbread tree in Egypt. Hyphoene thebaica is the botanical name of this palm.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures constipation and liver trouble and makes the bowels healthy and regular. Orino is superior to pills and tablets as it does not gripe or nauseate. Why take anything else? J. W. McCollum & Co.

AGE NO BAR.

Everybody in Gainesville is Eligible.

Old people stooped with suffering,
Middle age, courageously fighting.
Youth protesting impatiently;
Children, unable to explain;
All in misery from their kidneys.
Only a little backache first.
Comes when you catch a cold.
Or when you strain the back.
Many complications follow.
Urinary disorders, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure backache.
Cure every form of kidney ills.

Mrs. N. E. Carter, 108 W. McCormick street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "My son complained of a weak back and pains across his kidneys for some time. He came home at night, tired and hardly able to eat anything. It was difficult for him to assume a comfortable position and he felt generally miserable. Finally he decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial and procured a box. This remedy soon removed all signs of kidney trouble and he has had no return of it since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Her Darling's Desire.

"My darling," said a fond mother, who believed in appealing to children's tender feelings instead of punishing them, "if you are so naughty you will grieve mamma so that she will get ill and have to lie in bed in a dark room and take nasty medicine, and then she may die and have to be taken away out to the cemetery and be buried, and you"—

The child had become more solemn, but an angelic smile overspread his face at his mother's last words, and, throwing his arms about her neck, he exclaimed:

"Oh, mamma, and may I sit beside the coachman?"—London Queen.

Ask Yourself the Question.

Why not use Chamberlain's Liniment when you have rheumatism? We feel sure that the result will be prompt and satisfactory. It has cured others, why not you? Try it. It costs but a trifle. Price, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

Development.

"Remember," said the earnest inventor, "it isn't so many years since the telephone caused laughter."

"That's true," answered the man who has trouble with central. "At first it caused laughter; now it causes profanity."—Washington Star.

Proof.

Mrs. Shellpod—Hiram, some o' them there hobos hev stole the wash offen the line ag'in! Farmer Shellpod—Haow dew you know they wuz hobos? Mrs. Shellpod—Becuz they tuk everything but th' towels.—Chicago News.

If better were within, better would come out.—German Proverb.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Grooming.

Anciently man thought more highly of his horse than of his womenkind. But woman, as it chanced, was crafty.

"Why does he esteem his horse beyond his wife?" she asked herself and resolutely faced the task of finding out.

Her first answer was: "The horse will carry a heavier load."

Her next: "The horse doesn't talk back at him."

But neither of these, somehow, impressed her as being correct.

"Most likely," she declared at length, "it's in the grooming. Well, I'll just be well groomed myself and see."

It was a lucky guess, and from that time forward woman's position rose relatively until in our day the horse has scarcely a look in even at the horse show.—Puck.

Worn Out.

That's the way you feel about the lungs when you have a hacking cough. It's foolishness to let it go on and trust to luck to get over it, when Ballard's Horehound Syrup will stop the cough and heal the lungs. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.
